Coronation Celebrations

May marks a month-long tribute to King Charles III as we join the nation in celebrating his Coronation with our Royal Retreat experience. This uniquely British break includes overnight accommodation and breakfast plus a special royal afternoon tea tiered with classic treats and homemade cakes.

Enjoy delicate finger sandwiches with classic fillings as well as Victoria sponge and Jubilee cakes served alongside traditional home baked scones, clotted cream and strawberry jam. Choose your favourite blend of loose-leaf tea and raise a glass of sparkling Champagne to our monarch.

Walk in the footsteps of Royalty

Bailbrook House Hotel, Bath

The beautiful Queen Charlotte Lounge at Bailbrook House is so named after her visit in 1817.

Buxted Park Hotel, Easy Sussex

The present house was built almost 300 years ago by Thomas Medley, whose family had been keepers of the Privy Purse in the reign of Henry VIII.

At the beginning of the 20th Century the house was purchased by the renowned designer of the Savoy in London, Basil Ionides. He and his wife were great entertainers and good friends of George V and Queen Mary, who were regular guests at the house.

Crathorne Hall Hotel, North Yorkshire

Many renowned guests have stayed at Crathorne Hall, including Queen Elizabeth II and King Charles III.

Fawsley Hall Hotel & Spa, Northamptonshire

A true picture-postcard country house hotel, Fawsley Hall is surrounded by 2000 acres of extensive parkland and formal gardens landscaped by Capability Brown in the 1760s. It was a home built for entertaining: Elizabeth I and other monarchs all enjoyed its fine hospitality.

Grand Jersey Hotel & Spa, Jersey

Grand Jersey has played host to a variety of VIP guests and members of the Royal Family, including the then HRH Princess Elizabeth, The Queen Mother. In 2005, Queen Elizabeth II visited to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the liberation of the island at a civil lunch hosted at the hotel.

Woodlands Park Hotel, Surrey

Formerly a centre for Edwardian society in Surrey, Woodlands Park was the place to be for regular weekend house parties and lavish dinners frequented by socialites galore. The then Prince of Wales, who became King Edward VII, was a regular visitor, with actress Lillie Langtry - a friend of Oscar Wilde.
